This is the team that I have to thank on behalf of everyone for all their hard work on Thursday 30th September. That includes Musicians, Teachers, Parents, Students, Sound, Lighting and Technical crew. It was a long day and everyone handled themselves in an exemplary fashion. I know that working in a vacuum trying to create a show without being able to work together, rehearse together or share ideas was difficult, but look at what you did achieve on the day - your hard work and perseverance paid off.

BRAVO!!!

Rehearsal shots of the cast and musicians

Annie, really enjoying the process and finding joy in her delivery.

A very much more relaxed Catherine, finding her confidence and beginning to thoroughly enjoy the process.

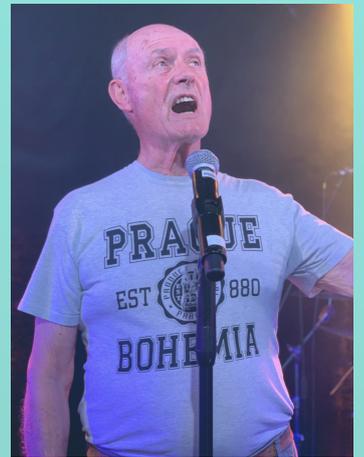

Caprese, our youngest student, coming to grips with concepts and the work required.

Scott, totally engrossed in the work of growing his style !!!!

Ardene, relaxing into the show and making us all cry.

Hamish, coping with his very first showcase and doing brilliantly.

Daniella, really getting confident and comfortable with performance

Rania, finding that giving less lands up sounding like more.

To My dream Team

Danielle Bitton

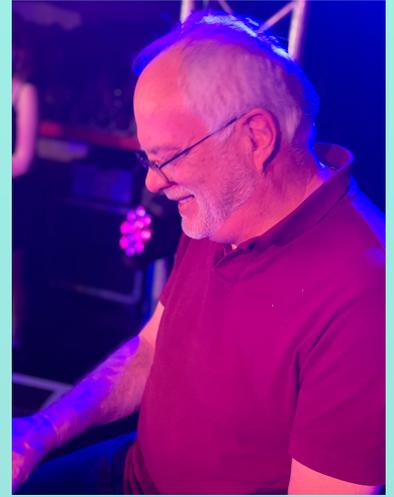

Thank you Johan and Danielle for the continual support during our transition phase of me taking a less prominent role in lesson time at the Academy.

The enthusiasm of the students hasn't wavered at all, in fact Danielle says she's like a mother watching her flock grow and there is a wonderful synergy forming between everyone.

Johan is the perfectionist as always. His precision and attention to every little detail helps us grow monumentally.

Thank you

Johan Laas

Thank you Aki for being one of our most ardent supporters. Not only did you provide a venue from which our students could perform, you created a stage large enough for the musicians to be onstage to support our fledgling artists create their magic.

Thank you
